

Welcome

President's Welcome

Dear colleagues

ICS in the 21st century is moving towards becoming a dynamic and outreaching society serving the industrial IT and automation industry in the region. As such, ICS had members spreading from Suppliers, Users to the Academics.

At ICS, there are unlimited opportunities for business exploration, numerous occasions for the knowledge acquisition and sharing and great space for personal networking. The ICS participation helps professionals enhance their value in the industry and prepare themselves for an increasingly competitive and innovation-driven global economy.
